

MANAGING RESEARCH DATA: Challenges and Opportunities at the University

FALL 2014 PLENARY SESSION

Thursday, October 23, 2014 • Noon–3 p.m. • Assembly Room, William Pitt Union

PROGRAM

11:50 a.m. COMPLIMENTARY BUFFET LUNCH

12:15 p.m. OPENING OF THE PLENARY SESSION AND INTRODUCTION OF THE CHANCELLOR

Michael B. Spring, president, University Senate

12:20 p.m. WELCOMING REMARKS

Patrick Gallagher, chancellor, University of Pittsburgh

12:40 p.m. INTRODUCTION OF THE KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Michael B. Spring

12:45 p.m.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER:
LIZ LYON, visiting professor, School of Information Sciences
“Gearing Up for Data? Institutional Drivers, Challenges, and Opportunities”

1:30 p.m. INTRODUCTION TO THE PANEL DISCUSSION

Michael B. Spring

1:35 p.m. PANELISTS' RESPONSES TO THE KEYNOTE ADDRESS

Michael J. Becich, chair,
Department of Biomedical Informatics

Kelly Dornin-Koss, director,
Education and Compliance Office for Human Subject Research

Barbara Epstein, director,
Health Sciences Library System

Jay Graham, enterprise architect,
Computing Services and Systems Development

Alison Langmead, director,
Visual Media Workshop, Department of History of Art and Architecture, and assistant professor, School of Information Sciences

Jennifer Woodward, associate vice provost for research operations

2:05 p.m. MODERATED DISCUSSION BY THE PANEL

2:30 p.m. DISCUSSION OPENS TO THE AUDIENCE

2:45 p.m. CLOSING REMARKS
Patricia E. Beeson, provost and senior vice chancellor

TO READ ADDITIONAL MATERIALS, visit univsenate.pitt.edu/research-data-management.

The senate deeply appreciates the efforts of Aaron Brenner, Chris Keslar, and Melissa Ratajeski in planning and executing this plenary session.

University of Pittsburgh

University Senate