

Whereas, a review of the University's practices and guidelines for international travel has resulted in recommendations to better support our faculty, staff, and students while abroad,

Faculty Assembly endorses the changes proposed by the Provost that will require faculty to register their itineraries and contact information when traveling abroad on University business.